St. James's, December 11.

THE following Addreſs of the States of the Iſland of Jerſey, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the States of your Majeſty's Iſland of Jerſey.

May it pleaſe your Sacred Majeſty,

AS every Event that can increaſe your Majeſty's private Happineſs, and eſtabliſh the Welfare of your People, with the Proſperity of your Kingdoms, will always give your faithful Subjects of this Iſland the trueſt Joy, we moſt humbly beg your Majeſty's Permiſſion to offer our warm and unfeigned Congratulations upon the Auſpicious Nativity of a Royal Prince, and the happy Recovery of our gracious Queen.

Always unanimous in our Loyalty to your Royal Houſe, and in our Attachment to the Proteſtant Religion, we have ſeen, with the higheſt Satisfaction, the ardent Wiſhes which your Subjects had formed, upon your Nuptials, compleated, in the Birth of an Heir Apparent to your Majeſty's Crown; by whom the Religious and Civil Rights, of which they have had the fulleſt Enjoyment under your Illuſtrious Family, may be effectually ſecured; and who, being formed after your Example, and inheriting your Majeſty's Virtues, may render the ineſtimable Bleſſings of your Majeſty's Reign ſtable and permanent to Poſterity.

The immortal Honour which hath accrued to your Majeſty's Arms, from the late glorious and ever memorable Reduction of the Havannah, hath proved a freſh Occaſion of Joy and Exultation to your faithful Subjects of this Iſland, upon ſeeing a Conqueſt, where the greateſt Dangers and Difficulties were to be ſurrounded, happily effected by the intrepid Valour of your Majeſty's Fleets and Armies, under the Conduct of two Commanders of unwearied Zeal, and of diſtinguiſhed Abilities; one of whom your Majeſty was graciouſly pleaſed, ſome Time ſince, out of your great Goodneſs to us, to appoint the Governour in Chief of this your Majeſty's Iſland.

That the Almighty may long preſerve your Majeſty and the Queen, with your Royal Progeny, to reign over a free, brave, and grateful People, will be the conſtant Prayer of, Iſland of Jerſey, Nov. 17, 1762. Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, and ever loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Norfolk, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and obedient Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Norfolk, ever ſenſible of our Duty to the beſt of Sovereigns, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon with our Tribute of Congratulation upon the ſafe Delivery of the Queen, and the Auſpicious Birth of an Heir Apparent to your Crown.

Your Majeſty feels for your Subjects as your Children; and we ſhould be guilty of the moſt criminal Ingratitude, if we did not feel for you as our Parent; therefore our fervent Wiſhes are, That your Majeſty's unwearied Labours for the Public Good, may be continually ſoftened by every virtuous and endearing Pleaſure of domeſtick Life; and, upon this joyful Occaſion, we cannot but anticipate the Happineſs of our Poſterity, governed through a Succeſſion of Ages, by Princes deſcending from your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort, the future Defenders of the Proteſtant Religion, and the faithful Guardians of Civil Liberty.

Will your Majeſty, at the ſame Time, be pleaſed to accept from us the ſincere Expreſſions, which we moſt humbly beg Leave to offer, of Veneration for your Royal Perſon, Confidence in the Wiſdom of your Meaſures, Gratitude for the Felicities we enjoy, and Satisfaction in the Proſpect of a happy Termination of a moſt ſucceſsful and glorious War.

Convinced that your elevated Spirit of Royal Wiſdom, Juſtice, Fortitude, and Humanity, is the Spring of all thoſe Counſels and Operations from which are derived the Succeſſes of War, the Advantages of Peace, and the augmented Glory, Proſperity and Security of Great Britain—Charmed with your Majeſty's Tenderneſs for your Subjects, on Account of the Burdens laid upon them, in conſequence of ſo long and expenſive a War, and the ſollicitous Attention to their Intereſts, in the Improvement of Commerce, the Diſcharge of Public Debts, and the Diminution of Taxes—We muſt be inſenſible of our own Happineſs, and unworthy of your Royal Goodneſs, if we did not feel the moſt loyal and grateful Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

As Peace, upon Terms of Security and Advantage, is always more eligible than War, in reſpect both to Humanity and good Policy, eſpecially for an induſtrious, trading and commercial Nation; we cannot ſufficiently applaud your Majeſty's Conduct in preferring Peace to War, at this Juncture, when your Arms have been attended with the moſt uninterrupted and glorious Succeſs, as it is a demonſtrative Proof of a Mind ſuperior to the deluſive Charms of unbounded Ambition, and filled with the nobleſt Sentiments of Equity, Humanity, and Patriotic Affection for the Welfare of your People.

Had your Royal Prudence thought fit to withhold from our Knowledge the Preliminary Conditions, which are to be the Baſis of a Treaty of Peace, we ſhould have had, nevertheleſs, an entire Confidence in your Royal Word, That they are ſuch as will form a ſafe, honourable, and advantageous Peace; but as your Majeſty has condeſcended to communicate them to your People, we cannot forbear to add Expreſſions of Joy and Triumph, at Finding the Power and Inſolence of your Enemies ſo ſubdued, duced, as to cede to your Majeſty the perpetual Poſſeſſion of ſo extenſive and valuable Acquiſitions.

We know of no Treaty extant in the Annals of any Nation, by which ſuch immenſe Territories, ſuch Places of Importance, and ſuch Advantages for the Settlement and Security of Colonies, and the Extenſion of Trade and Commerce, were ever obtained.

Countries not yet peopled ſhall reſound with the Names. Nations not yet born ſhall celebrate the Memory of your Majeſty and your Royal Progenitors.

Long may your Majeſty enjoy the Dignity and Splendor of a vaſt and growing Empire; the Sweets of uninterrupted Peace and Tranquility; and the Affections of a grateful, obedient, numerous, brave, united, and happy People.

Dated at the Caſtle of Norwich, this 6th of December, 1762.

The following Addreſs of the Freeholders and Heretors of the Orkney-Iſlands, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders and Heretors of the Orkney-Iſlands, with joyful Hearts, humbly beg Leave to embrace this our Firſt Opportunity of Congratulating your Majeſty on the Auſpicious Birth of a Prince, Heir Apparent to the Imperial Crown of Great Britain; the happy Recovery of the Queen his Illuſtrious Mother; and the ſignal Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms, in the great and important Conqueſt of the Havannah, and the Retaking of Newfoundland.

By the Bleſſing of the Almighty on the diſtinguiſhed Valour and Military Skill of Britiſh Sailors and Soldiers, Spain is now convinced, that her ſtrong and well defended Fortreſs was not yet impregnable; and France, that She could not maintain her accidental Acquiſition any longer than your Majeſty thought fit to permit.

The Meaſures wiſely planned by your Majeſty's Councils, and faithfully, heroically, and effectually executed by your brave and undaunted Subjects, muſt at length bring your Enemies to Reaſon, and give Quiet to your Dominions; over which may your Sacred Majeſty's Reign be long and durable, conſpicuous for the Time to come, by a ſolid, ſubſtantial, and permanent Peace; as for the Time paſt, by a well-conducted, a glorious, and a ſucceſsful War.

Signed in our Preſence, and at our Appointment, by Patrick Honyman, Præſes.

Kirkwall, November 9, 1762.

The following Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Freeholders, and others of the County of Linlithgow, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Hon. Charles Hope Weir, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the County of Linlithgow,

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and others of the County of Linlithgow, beg Leave moſt humbly and heartily to congratulate your Majeſty on the happy Event of the Birth of the Prince of Wales, with our moſt ardent Wiſhes that your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort may be long preſerved, and bleſſed with a numerous Iſſue.

The glorious and ſignal Succeſs, with which your Majeſty's Arms have been attended in various Parts of the Globe, muſt fill every Heart with the moſt grateful Senſe of the Divine Goodneſs, in Proſpering your Majeſty's paternal and vigorous Endeavours for the Happineſs of your Subjects, which we have the pleaſing Hope of ſeeing ſecured by an honourable, advantageous, and laſting Peace. And may the Almighty long render that greateſt of Bleſſings, the diſtinguiſhed Ornament of your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign over a free, happy, and loyal People.

In Preſence, and by Appointment of the Meeting, Linlithgow, Dec. 2, 1762. Hopetoun, Preſes.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Baillies, and Council of the Burgh of Kirkwall, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Colonel Scott, their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Baillies, and Council of your Burgh of Kirkwall, humbly beg Leave to join in the general Congratulations of your People on the late joyful Event of the Birth of a Prince, and the happy Recovery of the Queen.

For this Addition to your Majeſty's private Happineſs, and for the ſignal Succeſs, which has ſince attended your Majeſty's Arms, we bleſs and adore the God of Hoſts. The Hearts of your Subjects rejoice, while Diſmay and Confuſion muſt overwhelm your Enemies. They will henceforth conſider your Majeſty as the Sovereign of Fleets and Armies, with whom it is in vain for them any longer to contend: And your Kingdoms will flouriſh under the Bleſſings of an honourable and laſting Peace, the natural Conſequence of the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, and the unparalleled Conduct, Intrepidity and Perſeverance of your Forces by Sea and Land.

May your Majeſty henceforward wear your Temporal Crown undiſturbed; and may your Royal Son, taught by your Princely Inſtructions and Example, long inherit it with equal Wiſdom and Luſtre, after your Majeſty, full of Years and Renown, ſhall be called to the Enjoyment of a Crown of Glory everlaſting.

Signed in Name, Preſence, and by Appointment of the Council, and the Seal of the Burgh is hereto appended.

Kirkwall, Nov. 11, 1762. Ja. Baikie, Provoſt.

Cologne, December 1. On the 18th of laſt Month the Flying Hoſpital on the Upper Rhine was broke up, as was that here the 27th. Two Thirds of the Perſons employed in the Proviſions, Forage, &c. have been diſcharged. Of four thouſand Horſes, that tranſported Proviſions to the Army, two thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty are dead this Campaign. The Artillery, belonging to the Diviſion commanded by the Prince of Condé, is at Coblentz, and will be tranſported from thence by Water to Metz; but a Brigade of Horſes belonging to it, have been ſent to Neus to draw ſome Cannon that were left there.

The 28th paſt Boiſgelin marched hence; and the 30th Condé Cavalry and Dauphin Infantry: They were followed this Day by Limoſin, Briqueville, and Part of the Head Quarters. Champagne, Tourraine, d'Ally Roial Grenadiers Cambis, and two Battalions of Militia, remain here yet.

Bruſſels,

Bruſſels, December 2. Marſhal D'Etrées, having been preceded by the Prince of Condé, went through this City on Tueſday laſt, at Nine of the Clock in the Morning, coming from the Army. About Noon Part of their Baggage arrived here, and moved on the next Day for Paris.

Liege, December 3. This Day Boiſgelin of four Battalions entered the Fauxbourgs of this City. They had demanded Quarters for ſix hundred and ſeventy Men per Battalion, though the whole Regiment did not amount to fourteen hundred effective Men. They are to be in Garriſon at Valenciennes.

Tongres, December 3. Condé Cavalry, coming from Cologne in their Way to Valenciennes, arrived here this Day in very bad Order, and continue their March To-morrow.

Hague, December 3. The Empire appears to be greatly alarmed upon the March of ſeveral Corps of Pruſſians into the Heart of it. General Kleiſt has taken Poſſeſſion of Bamberg: Nuremberg and Ratisbon have ſhut their Gates, and removed the Military Cheſt belonging to the Army of the Circles, into Bavaria. The Hoſtages, which were detained at Nuremberg, are ſent to Augsbourg.

The French Troops evacuated Oſtend and Nieuport the 25th paſt.

A Conſpiracy againſt the Empreſs has been diſcovered at Moſcow, in which ſome Officers of the Guards were concerned. The Plot being diſcovered, the chief Conſpirators were arreſted, and tried. The Senate condemned them to different Kinds of Capital Puniſhments; but the Empreſs's Clemency converted the Sentence of Death into Baniſhment.

Hague, December 7. We hear from Berlin, that Conventions for a Suſpenſion of Hoſtilities for the Winter Months, have been concluded as uſual, between the Auſtrian and Pruſſian Armies, both in Sileſia, and the Electorate of Saxony.

Dublin, December 4.

Laſt Tueſday being the Anniverſary of the Birth of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales, the Flag was diſplayed on Birmingham Tower, the Great Guns at the Salute Battery, in His Majeſty's Park the Phœnix, were fired three Rounds, and anſwered by Vollies of Small Arms from the Regiments in Garriſon, which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks. At Noon there was a numerous and ſplendid Appearance of the Nobility, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, at the Caſtle, to compliment their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices on the Occaſion. In the Evening there was a Play given by their Excellencies, for the Entertainment of the Ladies; and the Night concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonſtrations of Joy.

Dublin Caſtle, December 4.

Late on Wedneſday Night the Account arrived here of the Ratification of the Preliminary Articles of Peace being exchanged at Verſailles on the 22d of laſt Month, by the Miniſters Plenipotentiary of His Majeſty, of the moſt Chriſtian King, and of the Catholick King: Upon which Occaſion, on Thurſday the Flag was diſplayed on Birmingham Tower, and the Great Guns in His Majeſty's Park the Phœnix were fired three Rounds, and anſwered by Vollies from the Regiments in the Barracks.

And this Day the Lord Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Sheriffs of Dublin, the King of Arms, and other Officers attending the State, proclaimed the Ceſſation of Arms, as well by Sea as Land, agreed upon between His Majeſty, the moſt Chriſtian King, and the Catholick King, firſt at the Caſtle Gate, and afterwards went in Proceſſion through the City, eſcorted by a Squadron of Dragoons, and proclaimed the ſame at the following Places, viz. at the Tolſel, at Corn-market, at the Old Bridge, at Ormond Bridge, and at Eſſex Bridge, with the uſual Solemnities. After which the Guns in His Majeſty's Park the Phœnix, were fired three Rounds, and anſwered by Vollies from the Regiments quartered here; and the Night concluded with Bonfires, Ringing of Bells, and other publick Demonſtrations of Joy.

Cuſtom Houſe. London, December 8, 1762.

Whereas on Wedneſday the 1ſt Day of September laſt, about Eight of the Clock at Night, a moſt violent Outrage was committed on the Perſon of Joſeph Manuel, of Iford in the Pariſh of Chriſt Church Twynham in the County of Southampton, Labourer, by a Gang of ſuppoſed Smugglers, conſiſting of Eight Perſons, who, (under Pretence of being a Preſs Gang) in an outrageous Manner, forced open the Door of the Houſe of William Manuel, Father of the ſaid Joſeph Manuel, at Iford aforeſaid, violently ſeized his Son the ſaid Joſeph Manuel; ſaid they were King's Men, and draged him by Force out of the Houſe, carried him acroſs the Heath to the Sea Shore towards Poole, and forced him down to Bourn Mouth to a lonely Houſe there, called the Decoy-pond Houſe, notoriouſly frequented by Smuglers, where, after he had been ſome little Time confined, he was put into a Boat, afterwards thrown into the Sea, and then carried on board a Smugling Cutter called the Ranger Privateer of Guernſey, Thomas Donnals, Commander, and well known amongſt the Smuglers by the Name of the Dorcas Cutter, which ſoon after got under Sail and put to Sea: That, in their Paſſage to Alderney, and after their Arrival there, the ſaid Joſeph Manuel was treated with great Cruelty, and would probably have been murdered, if ſome few of the Crew relenting had not interpoſed: That the ſaid Joſeph Manuel was compelled to fire off (with Intent, as it is ſuppoſed, to deſtroy him,) an overcharged Blunderbuſs, which burſt, and tore off his Left Thumb: That having been left in this Condition at Alderney, he found Means ſince to eſcape from thence, and to return Home.

This Outrage having been committed on Account of the ſaid Joſeph Manuel's being ſuppoſed to have given Information to the Officers of the Revenue; and there being great Reaſon to believe that it was not (as ſome of them have declared) any Reſentment of their own, that induced the Maſter and Crew of the Ranger, otherwiſe called the Dorcas Cutter, to commit this audacious Outrage, but that they were hired or inſtigated to do it by ſome of the principal Smuglers on that Part of the Coaſts of Dorſetſhire and Hampſhire;

The Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms, in order to bring the Offenders to Juſtice, and to ſuppreſs the enormous Smuging now moſt audaciouſly carried on upon that Part of thoſe Coaſts, do hereby promiſe a Reward of Fifty Pounds, to any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall diſcover and apprehend, or cauſe to be diſcovered and apprehended, any one or more of the principal Offenders or Ringleaders of this Gang, and more eſpecially the Perſon who firſt entered the Houſe of the ſaid William Manuel, and pretended to have the King's Authority—the ſaid Thomas Donnals, who commanded the Veſſel or Smugling Cutter when Joſeph Manuel was forced on Board, the Perſons who threw him into the Sea, or who forced him to fire off the overcharged Blunderbuſs above-mentioned; to be paid by the Receiver General of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms upon Conviction. And the ſaid Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms do alſo promiſe the like Reward of Fifty Pounds, to any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall diſcover and apprehend, or cauſe to be diſcovered and apprehended, any of the Perſons by whoſe Means or Inſtigation any of the Offenders before-mentioned were hired or induced to commit the ſaid Outrages, to be likewiſe paid by the Receiver General of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms upon Conviction.

By Order of the Commiſſioners,
Wm. Wood, Secretary.
